

Newbold Church

Newbold Church is part of Newbold College in Binfield. It is a Seventh Day Adventist church with a family of around 1000 people who worship together in a variety of worship services on Saturday mornings. It is an international church community made up of over 50 nationalities and it even has some Bible study classes in special language groups. The Church operates Newbold Primary School and is situated next to Newbold College which also is part of the church community. On a larger scale it forms part of the global Adventist community of over 16 million members in 204 countries.