Where we're from

Nino and Becky Moscardini relocated with their two sons to Triangle Vineyard Church in North Carolina, USA. They spent a number of years there, investing in worship and youth ministries, before feeling God call them back to the UK.

On their return, Nino and Becky attended Riverside Vineyard, Twickenham until God moved them to plant a new church – and in September 1999 a team was sent out to plant Wokingham Vineyard!

Challenging times

By Easter 2002, Wokingham Vineyard had grown from a small group of praying friends to an established congregation meeting each Sunday. God's blessings continued and in July 2005 the church found itself moving to the larger premises of Edgbarrow School in Crowthorne – where we are currently located!

With great sorrow, a month after moving into Edgbarrow, Becky lost her 10-year battle against cancer and went to be with the Lord.

Over time, the church began to recover from its loss, and in 2010 the whole church celebrated Nino's marriage to Debbie. Together, the new family grew to include Nino's two boys, Debbie's two girls, several son- and daughters-in-law and they have together grown to lead Wokingham Vineyard in what it has become today.

Where are we today?

Wokingham Vineyard meets at Edgbarrow School every Sunday, transforming the school building into the church we know and love.

During the week, the church has a range of different outreach projects, ranging from those closer to home (such as Foodbank to Kids Matter) to those much further away (Zoe Zambia). Nino and Debbie, supported by a team of pastors and admin staff, put into practice the churches four core values: love, compassion, forgiveness and acceptance.
